

WINTER EUROVISION SPORTS GAMES
AVORIAZ – France – march 12th to 19th 2005

Athletes Release Form

Risk

The participants in the alpine skiing-competitions and their trainers, are aware of dangers involved and the potential for injury upon themselves, as well as upon officials and third persons, that may be caused by weather conditions, conditions of the course, speed, course installations, equipment, third persons, etc...

Liability

US ORTF (US ORTF as organiser, and ESF of Avoriaz as organising club) organises the event according to the FIS competition rules, and the Eurovisionsports Winter rules of July 1st 1999. The jury will especially emphasize rules concerning security aspects. The organiser and the organising club will not assume during training and/or competitions, unless the damage is the direst result of negligence or deliberate acts by either of them.

Self-Responsability

The participants and their trainers confirm that they will inspect the course as well as the installations and fences before the start, and will inform the jury about any element that might endanger their safety.

By participating in the race, all participants and their trainers acknowledge all safety measures taken to correspond to the rules.

During training and competition, each participant is responsible for his/her equipment as well as for their run.

Each athlete participates at his/her own risk in the training and the competitions.

By signing this decaration, each participant confirms that he/she has read and understood its content and accept the terms as binding.

Name : First name :

Date of birth:.....

Date :

Signature :